A collection of songs that are INTIMATE...Modern Rock meets sultry Jazz vocals. With unparalleled honesty, this smokey alto invites you into the most sacred places of her heart. 10 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Singer/songwriter Jamie Lipe is 28 years old and resides in San Antonio. She grew up relatively unnoticed and hidden away in Fredericksburg, a little town in the Texas hill country. A self taught drummer, pianist, and bass guitar player, she spent most of her time as a youth recording songs on a cassette tape recorder, layering in instruments or vocal harmonies. One might find a small library of tapes with such compositions tucked away under a bed in her mom's home in Fredericksburg. She is an accomplished instrumentalist who claims to only "play at" the guitar and to be a "little out of practice" on her trumpet. However, if you listen closely to the tracks on her indie album, "Freedom Comes", you might notice that she is as unassuming and humble as she is talented. In 2000, with a desire to record some of her original material, Jamie set out to purchase recording equipment. She spent the next 4 years learning to engineer and record using a humble but effective 8-track digital home studio. The culmination of her talents as a musician, songwriter, and singer are showcased on the self-produced album, a result of her determination and drive to do what most would consider, at best, a daunting task. "Freedom Comes" has been hailed as a stunningly honest album, both lyrically and musically. You will hear songs with passionate lyrics conveying a lifelong battle with fear and having the guts to overcome. The transparency will grip you, the depth will challenge you, and the excellence will simply shock you. This is a must have for those who are looking for something fresh and without industry preservatives.
