Details: Beneath a Jeweled Sky began five years ago when Jill first brought home her 36 string Bubinga Celtic harp. Playing the pedal harp for years, followed by the 32 string walnut Celtic harp, Jill found the resonant sounds of the Bubinga harp mesmerizing. As melodies began to take shape, musical stories began to interweave themselves into these melodies. Along Jills journey, interactions with other musicians inspired her to create this Celtic collection of original songs, as well as some of her favorite arrangements of traditional Celtic melodies. Jills heart and soul is poured into each song as she carefully pulls the life out of each string plucked -- laying a foundation for the listener to walk upon, and giving him or her a firm grasp onto what she is trying to convey: the whimsical and emotional power music possesses.
