Jimmy started playing professionally in 1980 with his band Masque featuring guitar wiz Vinnie Moore. Moving to Florida in 1986, he took up with Easy Excess for 2 years on nonstop gigging. Wanting to pursue Blues as his main music, Jimmy returned to the Tri-State area in 1989. He picked up a gig with Lisa Jack The Reputations and this led to many years of work backing up Regional Acts such as Sister Blue, Jim McCarty, The Homewreckers. In 1996, he hit the road with Blues Great Sonny Rhodes touring Europe, Canada the U.S. It was on this tour that he met and played with many Great Bluesmen including the Legendary Frankie Lee, and would go on to back up the singer on some East Coast dates. Returning in 1997, he recorded with Randy Lippincott began backing up Randy as well as Georgie Bonds The Blueskeepers and Arkansas' own Lonnie Shields. Jimmy stays busy with these various artists, sometimes working 6 to 7 nights a week, but he still found time to back L.A.'s Arthur Adams at the 2000 Pocono Blues Fest and Chris Cain at the 2001 Riverfront Blues Fest. "It's been my great pleasure to play behind all these Great Blues Artists. I am truly blessed. THANK YOU ALL SO MUCH!" - Jimmy Pritchard
