Joe Lies has made it into the semifinals of the Long Island Music Fest 2 years running, and into the hearts of club owners and fans alike. Their song "Everybody" made it into the top 100 Alternative songs on Garageband, and was the Garageband featured song of the day. "Garden" was heard on New York City's Z100 during their 2004 "Search for a Radio Star". Their unique blend of driving rhythms and satisfying radio-friendly hooks are a fitting back-drop for their in your face vocals and harmonies. The lyrics, a wry and witty take on everyday life tumble out like a fresh dose of reality television. Although catchy and memorable, the songs are not just your everyday radio fodder. This is more than evident on their 8 song debut CD ... From the opening get-up-and-dance feel of GARDEN to the wistful churnings of MadLove, it is not hard to be left wondering when the next CD is coming out, and when their therapist is coming back from vacation. There's nothing dark or heavy here, just fun music you'll want to hear again and again. The subject matter of the songs is a montage of everyday occurrences with a clever spin; Anthony and B Lies quip that they are "a band about nothing" - literally, Seinfeld put to music. Their quest for radio and industry attention consume them while they continue to write songs about whatever it is that has happened to them on any given day. Evidence that this band about "nothing" truly has something to say.
