"B Sides", released in March 2008, combines dance, rock, and electronica influences. Leaves Trees is due out in 2008 and will highlight John's folk influences. Here are a few quotes from what other people have said about John's music: My name is Robin...I just listened to a few of your songs. . . Wow!...Each of them are precious jewels... individual journeys...a trip into the heart...thank you...you are amongst the seasoned musicians whose work speaks for their lives...I am totally convinced that you are a rested soul.. .thanks for resting mine a little more and may you continue to nurture your gift...cheers I'm loving the new music! Has anyone told you today that you kick ass? If not, that's a shame... Your music moves me. The tone and the beats make me feel right. I can't lie, I love listening to you when I write. All of the ideas seem to come flowing when I listen to music that stirs me deep. You have a clear voice and you are creative in the ways you use it. I like the effects you use. John you are awesome and your music is so magical. Listening to your music makes everything better... thank u jp LOVE the new music! BIG respects to u:) love the music:)nice work Is it possible to fall madly in love with the entire world, and every living and non living thing in it? Because I have. And you're playing the soundtrack. I think in metaphors, and John Prosser, your music is angels sleeping on rain clouds. =] I love it. I love your music dont stop People who are interested in Beck U2 Moby should consider this download.
