Vintage Indie folk/rock recordings on this eclectic disc go back to the 1980's. Hear what this great songwriter was up to then. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: An eclectic and substantially electric - but still mostly folk - collection recorded over a 5-year period, Voluntown is JP Jones' first Vision Company Records release and features 11 all-original tunes currently unavailable anywhere else. This recording establishes Jones as that "chameleon" of stylists. "While most artists I have worked with have a thousand things to say and only one way of saying them, [Jones has] one thing to say and a thousand different ways to say it..." --Ed Freeman, record producer(Don McLean's American Pie). This vintage indie CD release features tracks recorded over a 5-year period in a variety of studios and with a variety of musicians. Originally these recordings existed only in a shoe box as a collection of demo tapes. Somewhere along the line JP decided to release the collection as a disc and Vision Company Records was born. "Not since Simply Red's debut as an album been so delightfully unpredictable track to track. Voluntown is an epic journey through the dark and stormy night of True Soul Music." - Nick Shields, Sound Waves Magazine "While most artists I have worked with have a thousand things to say and only one way of saying them, [Jones has] one thing to say and a thousand different ways to say it..." --Ed Freeman, record producer(Tim Hardon, Carly Simon, Tom Rush, etc.)
