Without a doubt one of Canada's top blues entertainers, Kevin Mark consistently delivers the goods night after night. His exceptional stage presence combined with his energetic sidemen is the perfect recipe for a swingin' party! His latest release, "Rolling The Dice" has garnered glowing reviews world-wide. Produced by Canadian blues legend Jack de Keyzer, the seven-member band (including a 3-piece saxophone section) was recorded live off the floor by Alec Fraser at his famed Liquid Toronto studio. The CD features thirteen great swingin' and drivin' blues tunes - eleven of which are Kevin Mark originals. A few special guests were on hand for this recording: Blues Hall-Of-Famer Michael Fonfara (Downchild Blues Band, Janis Joplin, Lou Reed) takes the piano seat throughout. The sweet sultry vocals of Linda Fraraccio are showcased on "Let's Do It Again", while Montreal bluesman Laurier Gagnon lends his solid guitar playing to 4 tracks. It even comes complete with two mini dice in the spine! WHAT THEY'RE SAYING... "Kevin Mark's a fine singer and a stylish guitarist, and he has a superbly swinging band with a killer three-piece horn section (all saxes!). Every cut's a winner." - Blues Revue Magazine (U.S.A.) "Kevin's no longer on the cusp of greatness - he's clearly arrived, and his sophomore outing is one of the best indie recordings to come down the pipe in a good while - this one gets my highest recommendation!" - John R. Taylor, Blues On Stage (U.S.A.) "You can feel the electricity throughout this CD, and just like his live performances, the time flies by. Great entertaining blues that'll make you feel like dancing." - Pierre Jobin, Qubec Audio Video Magazine (Canada) "From the first note, the tone is set.
