Music that's fun for kids, and adults won't find annoying. From the piano player on tv's "Whose Line Is It Anyway". 21 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: Most people recognize Laura Hall as the musical director and improvisational pianist on the ABC hit, WHOSE LINE IS IT ANYWAY?, or from her guest star appearances on THE DREW CAREY SHOW live episodes. Yes, she's a great improviser, but she's also a wonderful singer/songwriter. Laura has made two recordings of original music for children, I SEE A TIGER and COME JOIN THE PARADE, that are now available on one cd. The cd features her lively, fun, music for kids, with catchy rhythms and imaginative lyrics. The songs are in a wide variety of musical styles, and are very accessible to today's kids. Songs include "Polar Bears", which imagines what it would be like if the furry creatures took over your house; the jazzy "Scared at Night", which deals in a humorous way with childrens' fear of the dark; "I Love to Take a Bath", where kids get cleaned up to a lively country beat; and "Wild Child", about a kid who's not always on her best behavior. Laura has worked with kids as a preschool teacher and music teacher. She's also a mother of two. She loves the spontaneous joy with which children respond to music, and she love to share that joy with kids.
