acoustic blues, and contemporary folk and country 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Acoustic Blues, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Lawrence J. Clark is a songwriter, and that indicates two things. First, he composes music, and second, he pens lyrics. While adept at both, it's the latter at which Clark excels. In a day where the pop sound or the repetitive beat gets all the attention, Clark has remained true to the lyric. His songs are entertaining, humorous, sensitive, and just plain pretty. His debut offering is "BEAUTIFUL" and it contains his Kerrville Camp Stupid hit, "Wal-Mart Girl." You'll also hear the clever "Internet Blues," co-written with Jamey Duckworth. Lawrence J. Clark's voice is full and soothing, and the music for his lyrics is always fitting. An excellent live performer, Austin's Lawrence J. Clark will help round out any serious Texas music collection.
