Details: Level Rizon (formerly known as "Ground Level") is a band that blends a variety of musical styles and tastes to form a distinguished diverse sound that is totally unique. The members are from the metro Detroit and Pontiac areas, and have strong musical backgrounds. Collectively there is a great amount of experience between band members, both on amateur and professional levels. The concept of the band is to provide classy entertainment for various type settings such as: private parties, concerts and nightclubs. Our musical repertoire is extensive, ranging from blues and R/B to jazz standards, fusion and funk. This band is special because the members have a genuine love for performing quality music, which shows in our performance. As Ground Level, the group has been the opening act for such artists as Roy Ayers, Ronnie Laws, Lakeside, LL Cool J, The Isley Brothers, and the funk group Slave.
