A biting blend of deathrock and garage punk with just a tinge of metal. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Goth, METAL: Alternative Metal Details: Live Not on Evil is a dark, guitar-heavy organization serving up their haunting, melodic melodies like a train wreck wearing a bikini or a ghost chasing you down the street with a baseball bat. The band played its first show at The Upstage in Philadelphia, PA on December 10th, 1999, since which they've shared bills with such successful artists as Foetus, Trance to the Sun and Penis Flytrap. With the release of their 2001 debut CD, "Lucky Stiff," the band landed both great press as well as radio and online airplay around the world. "Lucky Stiff" is distributed through both SINister Records (Seattle) and Furia Musica (Europe) and is enhanced with the video for "The Scary Polka," produced by W.J.M. Productions. ----- "Live Not on Evil" has combined all its influences to ultimately create a record all its own. Live Not takes its metal tined, guitar dominated rock and molds it into something unique. The music is dark, heavy, and fuzzy, with a melodic side creeping in at times. L.N.O.E. also combines its shadowy and gloomy music with equally ominous lyrics of paranoia, passion, and terror." -- Steven Mowatt (Rockpile Magazine) "Live Not on Evil creates horror rock the good old fashioned way, with guitar, deep bass, drums and dark vocals. If you like The Damned or the Brick Bats you will dig this band as well. The vocals are strong, dark and matched well with the music." -- Julie Johnson (Grave Concerns Magazine) "Lucky Stiff is piercing, distortion-driven fun. Live Not on Evil gathers all their dark influences and creates an aggressive melting pot of impending doom." -- Dark Culture Magazine
