An exhilarating exploration of the frailty of the human condition....a true inspirational journey that's food for the soul....a journey the whole family will enjoy. 14 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Martin's Favor "So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man." Proverbs 3:4 Bringing triumph and victory to their music, this spirit filled group of brother and sisters are making their mark in the Christian and Gospel markets. Elaine, Eric, Janine and Francine Martin are Martin's Favor. With the independent release of their first CD, Need To Hear, the group shared their message of overcoming life's adversities. This refreshing, talented family writes, produces and has sung their way into the hearts of many. The new release, A Place, takes you on a journey that results in perfect peace. The new songs explore the frailty of the human condition and tell us that there is a place of sanctuary while here on Earth. Martin's Favor's sound is a special blend of genres that create a feel of calm and fun while celebrating their message of Hope, Praise and Thanksgiving for the Lord's presence in their lives. With a vocal blend that sounds like a prayer, each note is a call to communion. "It is necessary to recognize that God is the reason for all of life's success, as well as struggles which are for our growth," says lead singer Elaine. Having a desire from a very young age to be an asset to their ministry, each member of this group has earned a Bachelors Degree in Business from the University of Southern California and is very active in their local church. Recognized as prolific songwriter's as well as singers, their resume includes a multitude of studio projects and road shows. Martin's Favor has been featured on MCA, Motown, as well as personal television appearances on NBC's "Later "show as well as the TNT movie, "Call Me Clause" with Garth Brooks and Whoopi Goldberg. The group has also appeared with Tramaine Hawkins, Chante Moore, Gerald Albright and Lesa Terry, as well as shared the stage with Brian McKnight, Mary J. Blige, Yolanda Adams, Marvin Winans, Andrae Crouch and Rizen. Moving crowds from despair and hopelessness to a state of grace, Martin's Favor is a vessel for Life, Truth and God's Love for man. Contact Information: Nitram Entertainment, Inc. 1405 Marcelina Suite 108 Torrance, California 90501 (310) 328-1548
