Overall Rating - 9.5 out of 10 When you hear a CD that you really like, it's not always easy to try and describe the impact that it has had on you! I think that's the case here. I really like The Best Day of Our Lives, and I would definitely recommend it to anybody that was looking for great new music! However, it's hard for me to fully describe everything that makes me feel that way! I just know that I enjoyed listening to the CD on almost every level: intellectual, emotional, and spiritual! To me, it is a well-rounded project from a well-rounded artist! I hope that you'll get a chance to listen to the music of Matthew Maybanks! He is a very talented artist that deserves to be heard and seen! I hope that big things happen for him in the future - he's an artist that impresses me as one who will take everything in stride, and not become affected by success. That's my theory, anyway... let's hope to someday see that theory tested! -Mark Lush, Midwestbands.com, 9/26/05
