

Mp3 Merle Spangle - Proud To Be A Redneck country-comedy 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: If you're looking for Redneck humor at its best you have found it. "Merle Spangle and The Rockfish Boys" is the Holy Grail of "Rednecked-ness" shrink-wrapped in a cardboard sleeve. The title cut "Proud To Be A Redneck" hits every stereotype item in the redneck manual! There's plenty of others like "Pretty When I Die" and "Down In The Dumps" that are about that guy who lives in the trailer park down the road from yours - deer guttin' videos and all! "The Legend" is about that other guy you know who knows everything about everything - sound familiar?? And of course - a couple of drinking songs - "Overserved" and "World's Biggest Fool". This CD is as slick as butter and country as dirt at the same time. Settle back with a 40-ounce, a couple of pickled eggs and add Merle Spangle and the Rockfish boys and you've got a party! (P.S. Merle's got a child support and a boat payment due pretty soon, so if you like what you hear and feel like tossing a CD in your shopping cart, Merle would greatly appreciate it. It'll keep him out of jail for another month !)
