Upbeat and driving Afro-Caribbean and Latin Jazz 8 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: The youngest of the Simon brothers releases his first solo album as a leader and composer. Michael musical background goes back to Venezuela in the 80s when he was only ten years old already Jamming with his brothers. His musical studies cover a wide spectrum , first in Cuba where he went to the Ignacio Cervantes music school to study trumpet ... then the Rotterdam conservatory of music in Holland where he obtained his arranging and composition degree. For the past ten years Michael travels all the world's festivals and stages as a side man for different band in Europe. He was also part of his brother Marlon second album, internationally acclaimed "rumba a la patato" for the Ubiquity label where he composed and performed on two tracks. Now at the age of 30, Michael's first release as a solo artist is definitely another solid contribution to the Simon brother's artistic excellence and latin Jazz legacy with a project that presents such a maturity that will call the attention of the most serious Latin Jazz producers and audiences around the globe. Simon said: "let the music speak for itself".
