Northwest American rock and roll laced with psychedelia. Catchy monster riffs that sound instantly familiar yet original at the same time. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: 90's Rock, POP: Power Pop Details: "The Other Side" is a fresh collection of songs that showcase the dynamic range of the band -some beginning their life in the studio, others growing from impromptu jams. All have landed here on The Other Side- mined, cut, and polished -ready to catch new ears and old with big hooks, killer melodies, and provocative lyrics. First and foremost, this is a rock album - influenced by lead songwriter Steve Wilkinson's love for British-invasion pop sensibilities, passionate delivery, and simple arrangements- giving the record an instantly familiar feel, while maintaining a sound all it's own. Guest appearances include studio veterans Grant Cumpston (Gravelpit), Jeremy Wilson (Dharma Bums, Pilot), Rich Landar (King Black Acid, Jesus Presley), and Sara Beechwood(Saddlesoap). "With this debut release, these Portland veterans prove they are among Portland's finest ensembles - and quite possibly the most underrated band in the city's history. This album of powerful psychedelia and driving polyrhythms is a monster, packed with finely crafted songs, a gutsy vocal delivery and a wondrous way of fusing the surreal and the heavy-handed. It is one of the best local albums in a while, hands down. " Andre Hagestedt - KXL 2003 "The album's big-beat guitar sound is a constant thanks to Wilkinson's classic-rock influences. Craig Stahr's Technicolor guitar riffs animate and articulate the Mission 5 sound. Add smart arrangements and the locked-in rhythm ... and you have a band that manages to be raucous and thoughtful at the same time -- the best of tricks. " John Foyston - The Oregonian 2003
