"If I can't explain it from my own point of view, then I have no business talking about it anyways." He pauses to consider his next point. "On another level, thought it can't be all that personal; because if you look at life, we're all going through the same things. If not, no one would be able to relate to what I'm saying". "I'm saying ,my uniqueness comes from the ability to stand out and cannot be compared. My beats and lyrical stlye is what makes me so unique". In the mean time I let fans help me to grow larger in the underground unknown artist world till I hit the Mainstream media. I Love What I do,FOREVERRRRRRR.One."
