PLOW is a solo acoustic punk folker hailing from the back alley corridor of East Vancouver. Mixing a raunchy overtone of comedy with punk folk and roll flavor, he is best described as ' G.G. Allin meets Neil Young in a bar-room brawl on roller skates'. MR. PLOW, a touring maniac, has been obsessively berating audiences all over North America for the last ten years. With a schedule comprised of 35 tours, MR.PLOW has traveled with some legendary acts over the years, including Fishbone, D.O.A., and Dayglo Abortions, as well as sharing the stage with Bob Log III, NoMeansNo, SNFU, Extreme Elvis, The 3 Tards, Strung Out, Bane, Groovie Ghoulies, The Ripcordz and many, many more. This time around he has enlisted a cast from some of the best of the best to add their flavors and stylings to the collage of catchy little ditties. Metal god, Gene Hoglan (SYL, Death, Dark Angel, Dethklok, Testament, Meldrum) beats the tubs, Mr. Norwood Fisher (Fishbone, Trulio Disgracias, slaps out some mad bass vibes, Rocky George (X-Suicidal Tendencies, Fishbone) shreds out some smoking guitar riffs and classic solos. And...it doesn't stop there! Oderus Urungus and Flattus Maximus from Gwar flew in from their homeland In Antarctica to lend a hand with some guest vocals and flailing lead guitar. Angelo Moore (Fishbone), Chris "The Heathen" Valagao (Zimmer's Hole), Chi Pig (SNFU) and the lovely "Plow's Angels" (Sarah Jane and Krista) all lend their vocal chords to spice up the mix. The Apocalypse is upon us all with no end in sight. So you may as well go out with a smile and a good night.
