"This is an album of danger and smokey desire, with just enough nostalgia thrown in to tug at the heartstrings. Unforgettable." - Fiona Talkington-BBC Online 8 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Fusion, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: Sohjo - a twilight zone of many conflicting feelings at the same time. The tinge of sorrow in a laugh, a cry that can change to happiness... PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA clubs together three astonishing stars from the skies of the Finnish world music scene. Known to be a mesmerizing live act, PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA consists of the following players; the bass player Pekka Lehti, who begun his professional career at the age of seventeen and has since contributed to the success of such world-famous bands as Vrttin and ZetaBoo, the percussionist Marko Timonen and the kantele and harmonium player Jouko Kyhl. In 2003 PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA made the headlines through their passionate appereances at the Helsinki Festival. The threesome's genuine love for their art was given form in March 2003 as their debut album 'Sohjo' was released by Aito Records. 'Sohjo' gained instant recognition world-wide and was praised for its honesty and purity. PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA has bound together all the inspiring aspects of Nordic world music including their own personalities to create an exquisite album of true and passionate music. PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA has those passionate, timeless, enchanting qualities that separate them from the masses. Even in the frost of Finland no audience has been left cold to this band. Prepare yourself, for PEKKA LEHTI OUTO VOIMA will captivate you for good.
