Editorial Reviews Nashville Parenting Magazine January 2008 This sweet compilation of songs for babies was produced, written and performed by local singer/ songwriter Regina Wildun... From the Artist Because I always knew that one day I would become a mother, these lullabies have been a priceless part of my heart even before I became pregnant with our daughter. When I was a child, my precious mother used to tell me to "Sleep with the Angels". It is amazing that the Lord has given me "the desire of my heart" to be able to make these lullaby recordings for other mothers to bond with their babies as I have with mine. Every night I sing "Sleep with the Angels" to my precious angel, and it is my dream that it becomes a tradition for your family for generations to come! About the Artist *Taught herself how to play the guitar and began songwriting at the age of 9 *Graduated Cum Laude from Lambuth University with a Bachelor of Music degree *Moved to Nashville in 1982 and pursued her career in music *Early projects included writing and singing international TV commercials and jingles (using Kathy Mattea for vocals), singing demos for fellow writers, writing country songs and working with Ronnie Dunn, Stan Webb, and many others and authoring two books - a diary keepsake for the mother-to-be entitled, "Nine Months and Counting" and a follow -up book for the father-to-be entitled, "Nine Months and I Count Too" *Written theme songs for children's books and is currently working on another lullaby CD! CUSTOMER REVIEWS Regina's music brings comfort to struggling parents, May 3, 2008 By W. Corbett (Massachusetts) - Sleep With The Angels could only have been written and produced by the gentle hands of a loving mother. It's soft and warm melodies will take you back to your childhood, a time before we took on the stresses of adulthood. I am a parenting instructor and use the music on this CD to create an atmosphere in my classes that opens the hearts of my parents to be ready to make positive changes at home with their children. I even use this music to sooth my grandson to sleep. Beautiful, October 28, 2007 By K. Bradley (S.Carolina) - This is such a beautiful creation you truly have to hear it for yourself. My boys don't sleep without it. It is a part of our bed-time ritual and a blessing for calming down time! You've Got to Hear It Yourself!, April 6, 2008 By Tina Heindel (Germantown, TN) - You won't believe how peaceful and soothing this music is. Not only does it lull your little one into heavenly slumber, it also provides "Mom" with a therapeutic interlude. I have enjoyed this during stressful times and it has really helped me wind down. One side is instrumental so you can play it in your car while driving as well as in your nursery. I highly recommend this. It's like nothing else on the market. It's a great "blend" of old-fashioned and contemporary. It makes a great baby gift. Many of my friends have asked where they can buy it to give it to their friends who are expecting. You won't be disappointed!! As close to heaven as one can get on earth, March 21, 2008 By Cathy Breen (Clearwater, Florida USA) - This album is heavenly. Regina Wildun knows how to get into one's heart through her beautiful voice singing softly with words that console. Not only is this album wonderful for your young children, it also is comforting to the elderly. My mother was deathly ill and recently passed away. But one of her favor things to do was listen to the beautiful music that this album provides. It gave her much joy and comfort. Together her and I would listen to her songs and I believe it helped to again bond a mother and her daughters relationship, even at our adult ages. Regina Wildun has captured my support. I highly recommend this CD for anyone looking for some beautifully inspiring music. baby sent, March 20, 2008 By krista hale (newnan, ga) - wow what an incredible cd!! it is so obvious that this was written from a mothers heart. thank you regina for opening your heart of song and sharing with us other mothers so we in turn can share with our wonderful gifts from god. as the mother of two boys ages 5 and 3 i truly enjoy the calming effect it has at "calm down time." i plan to pass a copy of this cd on to every new motherand father.....i know. i am now a big fan of regina wildun and i am anxiously awaiting another cd!! I have enjoyed listening to the songs even after the children have fallen asleep. The cover of the CD is beautiful, too. The title is a wonderful bedtime blessing. It's every mother's desire for God's angels to watch over and protect her newborn baby. I would highly recommend this to anyone who is having a new baby or who knows someone who is expecting By Patti Butler (Tennessee) I own this CD and it is wonderful. The lyrics are very sweet and some not typical of your average lullaby CD. My daughter, who is four, puts this CD at the top of her 'night time' listening selections. I think that she likes this one best because it is very soothing. I also own the tape which I play for my one year old who is also a big fan. Best of all it is something that I can listen to and enjoy as well. Adult and kid friendly. I always include this CD in all my gift baskets for new Moms! Precious Lullabies, February 28, 2008 By Tammi Velasquez (Colorado Springs, CO) - See all my reviews These lullabies are so wonderful! The melodies are beautiful and the words are simple and touching. They are easy to memorize and sing lovingly to your own babies....and older children too! My eight-year-old daughter just loves them and drifts peacefully off to sleep while listening to them and/or singing along. They express the most precious thoughts and feelings in a mother's heart and will bring tears of joy to your eyes. I wish every mother could hear them, learn them, and sing them. I LOVE THEM! McConnell (Nashville, TN USA)

- I was a very fortunate child, to be loved by my mother and father (in my case, my Aunt and Uncle). I remember certain things about my early childhood that seem almost magical. One was my treasured "Puss-n-Boots" book. The other was a collection so stories that included "The Gingerbread Man" and "Humpty Dumpty". I am, uh... 40ish and I can still remember my mother reading and singing to me as if it were yesterday. Some of these memories are from when I was just one year old! When I heard the tracks from this CD I immediately thought of my mother and father, and those precious times Together. Thanks Regina Wildun, for this wonderful collection of Lullabies. I'm sure they will become cherished memories of many 40 year olds in the future. Perfect music for sleepless mom/dads and restless babies!, June 16, 2008 By Angela Anderson (New York City, New York) - I have purchased many lullaby CD's in hopes of putting my colicky baby to sleep and for my husband and I to get relief from the crying, and "Sleep with the Angels" is the ONLY music that does the trick! I have learned all the songs which are original, and they are so much better than the same old familiar standards. I would love to see "Sleep with the Angels" be as popular as "Rock a Bye Baby". I HIGHLY recommend it to all ages. I have bought several to give as baby gifts to my pregnant friends! People who are interested in should consider this download.
