Related styles: ELECTRONIC: House, ELECTRONIC: Broken Beat Details: The inspiration for Bring Back Back The Routemaster came to Rukaiya Russell whilst walking around Central London in 2007 a few years after the much loved 'hop on and off' red double decker London bus was discontinued. With all the hype in 2008 during the London Mayoral Elections, impulse came to finally finish the track and voila, a club track for London was born. Bring Back The Routemaster is a fun, original and energetic track for the clubs and for London! Rukaiya Russell is a producer from London. Her music is a range of Funky and Soulful House, Broken Beat and Chillout instrumentals. Bring Back The Routemaster is her debut.
