Details: * EXCLUSIVE TO CD BABY! -- With this CD you will also receive a free special edition DVD that includes interviews, behind the scenes footage, music videos and more! Every time I do new cd, it turns out to be a reflection of where I am in my life - what I am thinking, what I want, where I am going. More than any project I've ever done, FREE is that mirror. I wrote most of the album, and every song examines different definitions of the word "free": Free of spirit, free to be your truth, political and constitutional freedom, free from bondage of others and of self, freedom to express, the pain of freedom from a relationship. The word "free" means many things. At this point in my life and career, my primary freedom is in creating and, hopefully, living without the distraction of expectation. But of course I have the hope that this record speaks to others and their personal definitions of what it means to be FREE. -- Sam Sam Harris' diverse career has run the gamut from singer/songwriter to director, writer and producer, as well as being an actor on Broadway, film and television. He got his start as the grand champion of "Star Search" in its premiere season. On Broadway, he received a Drama Desk nomination for his role in Tommy Tune's "Grease", and a Drama League Award as well as Tony, Outer Critic's Circle and Drama Desk Award nominations for his work in Cy Coleman's Tony-nominated musical "The Life." He's also appeared on Broadway in Mel Brooks' Tony Award-winning musical "The Producers," in the national tour of Andrew Lloyd Webber's production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," and in the musicals "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Cabaret," "Hair" and "Pippin." He also starred in self-penned shows "Hard Copy," "Different Hats," "Revival" and his critically acclaimed show, "SAM." Harris is a multi-million album selling recording artist with nine studio albums to his credit. He can also be heard on numerous concert, guest artist and cast recordings. He has toured extensively in concert and has played to sold-out audiences at major venues including New York's Carnegie Hall, Los Angeles' Universal Amphitheatre and London's West End. He has appeared with The Boston Pops Symphony Orchestra, at The White House and has sung on a variety of television specials and live productions. Behind the scenes, he co-created and wrote the television series "Down to Earth." He also served as the music supervisor for the Emmy-nominated television special "Michael Jackson: 30th Anniversary Celebration." Most recently he was seen on the CBS comedy "The Class". TV Guide and columnist Liz Smith called him the breakout character of the television season. Sam recently accepted a deal to host his own tv talk show with the Lifetime network partially based on his work via his vlogging on SamTube.com.
