An exciting, inspirational blend of upbeat contemporary original christian pop with driving guitars flowing harmonies - think sarah mclachlan meets goo goo dolls and you're almost there. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: While she has over 200 original Christian songs in her song catalog, sings, and plays piano and mandolin, the quality that draws most people to Shannon is her passion for sharing her love of Jesus Christ through her music speaking ministry, Lift Me Up Ministries. With a vocal style often likened to Sarah McLachlan, Tori Amos or Jewel, Shannon's musical influences, while drawing from as far afield as jazz, bluegrass and classical, meld into a blend of contemporary Christian pop with upbeat lyrics and a penchant for tackling life's daily issues with both a sense of humor and the eye of compassion. Her message is ageless and timeless, and Shannon's audiences are comprised of people from all walks of life and age groups who are striving to balance the demands of family, career and daily living with spiritual growth. With her new 12 song all-original contemporary Christian pop CD, Modern Day Eve, to be released in summer 2002, Shannon's songwriting, speaking and performance ministry goal continues to be to build bonds of community by revealing that we are not alone in this world - we have God; we have each other. Through her songs and stories she seeks to provide inspiration to others to seek and find the joy, wonder and unconditional love that is available to us in each moment through God's grace. By together seeking grace one song at a time, Shannon bonds with her audiences to uplift, heal and inspire listeners to experience God's constant presence in their lives. She seeks to help listeners recognize God's plan for each of their lives and to rejoice in the gift of a life lived fully for God's glory.
