Details: Sinewy, sultry and soulful, Shiron Denise casts a spell with every velvet note she delivers. A timeless chanteuse on today's stage, entertaining lovers of song with yesterdays tried and true next to contemporary's pop, melodizing all to the heartbeat of the present with a voice as comfortable in the church choir as the big band spotlight. Live with Point Blank, ShironDenise delivers, her voice unrestrained by the accomplished array of genres and her four octaves in tow: a range that brings to audiences mind Minnie Riperton and Chante Moore. Such is Love, her debut recording with musical group Point Blank, is described as, Mellifluous, smoky and passionatelike finding someones lost love letter. The recording is a testament to all the divas of jazz and R B a young girl listened to as she grew with her ear to the radio. Inspired and charged by the soulful stories of vocalists like Nancy Wilson, Shiron Denise has developed her own ability to blur the lines of jazz, pop and R B, and for her second project, as if taking a page from Ms. Wilson's own book, ShironDenise and Point Blank have decided not to stick to a typical script. The Way Love Is continues to ride, rock and breathe that universal story of love. The anticipated recording available September 2008 not only showcases the talents of Shiron Denise, but the power and groove of Point Blank as well: Detroit musicians known for their R B, NuJazz and funk artistry. Known for her past years singing with Bens Friends Jazz Orchestra, audiences expecting nostalgic and straight ahead standards are in for an upbeat surprise as Shiron Denise displays her other side with Point Blank, a side deliciously smooth, jazzy, ready to resurrect love with R B and rock the house.
