Bluesy, circus, metal, bluegrass, reggae, funkadelic, rock and roll band; expect the unexpected. 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, BLUES: Guitar Blues Details: The Hundredth Monkey are four of the best people in the United States. They started out playing in 2001 around the Twin Cities area, kicking ass and taking names. Mostly taking names - they have quite a long mailing list. Anyhoo- now they play all over and bring delight to all who dont end up puking. On Guitar, Violin, Viola, Keyboards, Accordion, and Nose Flute: Ryan - Once a member of the big time ska band The Lemon Merchants and still a member of the big time weird band Number F, he is willing to play with anything. On Bass and Nose Flute: Jake - Also once a member of The Lemon Merchants, he will be your friend. On Vocals, Guitar, and Nose Flute: Peter - He writes speeches for former governor of Minnesota Jesse "The Body" Ventura. He is funny. On Drums and Nose Flute: Chris - He has a girlfriend now.
