A perfect blend of Funk, a little Rock and Blues. Some NuSkool and OISkool. 13 MP3 Songs

URBAN/R&B: Funk, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Jaye Q. and Michael K. were introduced to each other through a mutual friend "Andra Hines." Soon after the introduction they began writing tracks together consistently as if no force could ever hold them back. A month went by and they had recorded roughly 6 slammin' funk tracks. In need of a lead guitar player, Andra Hines recommended Joe Drock who Jaye Q. had worked with years before. Drock wasn't eager to jump back into a band again but after witnessing the funk, he became more adamant about being a part of the new funk era. He came in and laid down a riveting performance which took the funk to another level and then realized this was his new home. The three of them continued writing and recording tracks for the album but still in need of a bass player. Pat Green, a mutual friend of Michael's and Drock, introduced bass player Patrick L. La Touche to the project. After being blown away from listening to the tracks, he joined the band with no hesitation. Patrick's awesome bass skills brought the project to full circle. The beauty of this team is that they're all on the same funk page and respect one another's talent. They all have so much to contribute to the project. It's un-real and magical! Get ready for some new funk up in ya !!!
