Family Biography "THE MUSICAL BLEND OF HIP-HOP, RAP, R&B AND SOUL" Song, simply defined, is word set to melody. When a song transcends, its simple definition becomes a work of art, it is then defined as the product of new artists THE N.E. FAMILY (aka - The Narrative Entertainment Family). To attempt to explain their gifted technique by comparing them to other artists will only quell their significance. Like no recent other, THE N.E. FAMILY is equipped toetch their place in the musical landscape and challenge the industry's definition of urban and popular music. More than just unbound vocalists, and even more than poignant writers - THE N.E. FAMILY are true entertainers and performers. They make the kind of music that is equally appreciated with the eyes closed. When they lift their voices of lyrics, colorful melody paints a vivid backdrop, while meaningful writing adds detail. Together they orchestrate a masterpiece of expressionism. This "Musical Blend" of the future flips the script with clever metaphoric lyrics and rare vocal tones charged with a hook-melody attack style. Add it all up this Los Angeles based, urban R&B/Rap group is a lock to spin heads, and sprout clusters of international fans everywhere. Descriptive as their name....THE N.E. FAMILY...is both special and unique, as heard in the tones of their voices; they are equally talented in style and delivery of their vocals. THE N.E. FAMILY, a four member group formed in 1999, is a new breed of Hip-Hop artists which is comprised of founder L-Jay (producer, writer, singer, rapper and performer), Knatural (rapper, writer), Chawko (rapper, writer), Mr. Ward rapper, writer).
