Details: 4 The People Bringing a strong finish to 2006 is Wade's 6th CD! It has been a very good year with "Best Male Artist" from the NAMMYS (Native American Music Awards), international television and radio play, and this new CD holds down the roots while pushing forward in good way. From strong songs that you sing well after they are over, to a piano native flute duet, to jammin' hard with his Black Wolf Group, Wade continues to flirt with the musical styles of blues, rock, soul, and jam while maintaining his Menominee Indian Reservation roots as the foundation. 4 the People has something for all who liked anything that came before and it's also a great introduction for those who are new to the music. Check it out now! Note the CD has been remastered for 2007. CD Track List For the People Honoring the people with grand piano, native flute, hand drum vocals. Cry of the Wolf Neo-traditional native vocal hook over a bluesy groove that tells the story of a wolf crying out a warning to civilization. Two Step Girl For the powwow snags to the elderly couples that do the 2 step with their loved one. Recently performed live on national Canadian television (APTN) during the Aboriginal Peoples Choice Awards. What You Didn't Say About a relationship gone sour due to false promises. The song rocks with a hook that sticks in your head. Rez Dawg Blues Tricked out slow blues with a nod to Hendrix and a story from the rez! Blessed A beautiful ballad in honor of children. Sung in both Menominee language and English. Love Remains A ballad that rocks in a good way for those who's loved ones have moved on from this world. Take Me Home An unforgettable melody sung for the homeless. And Our Blues Have Just Begun If Hendrix (Belly Button Window) hooked up with Bonnie Raitt and shared a song. When It's Time Soulful hook line and sinker.
