Jazz/Rock instrumental original music played with commitment featuring melodic guitar and bass over top of contemporary keyboards and dynamic drumming. 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Jazzy Blues, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: A.D.D. is comprised of Allen Kave, guitar, Denny Reed, keyboards, Doug Spickler, drums, with special guest Evan Lee on bass. These core musicians were the foundation for several bands during the 80's and 90's. They reformed to compose and play original instrumental jazz/blues/rock. Allen Kave has worked with John Palumbo of Crack The Sky fame, released a CD under the name Shield, a blues CD under the name Blue Streak and had a cut on the R&B artist Elvin Spencer's CD titled "Pickin Up The Pieces". Denny Reed and Doug Spickler have similar backgrounds having come out of several horn bands in the Hagerstown, MD area. Evan Lee has been a long time friend with experience mainly in the recording studio. The influences for the group include Steely Dan, Robben Ford, Kansas, Allman Brothers, Pat Metheny, and Santana. Although the recording is a studio recording, the songs are composed on the spot and played in one take. Due to the extensive live experience of the band, it is their preferred method of recording.
