New music with traces of folk, rap, urban, funk, jazz, and rock. A rebel's vision. 13 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Who is A.Mays?? The journeyman observer, guitarist, singer songwriter has delivered a record that many describe as "beautiful" despite the fact he delivers blistering rap poetry for the title track aimed like a dagger toward the soul of the worldwide system. Others have commented that it covers almost every mood - a rarity in the musical world. Standout track "Make it thru" is uplifting with it's swinging rhythm guitar, congas, and big beat. "So the revolution", Mays' revelation of a song written 10 days before the 911 tragedy is indicative of who he is as an artist. Imagine a small club full of people stomping their feet to a marching rhythm and a flamenco-esque guitar transitioning into a western theme and onto a reggae riff and you're starting to get the picture. Music lovers will be enthralled by the unmistakable style and uniqueness of the daring compositions. A.Mays' bold vision is insightful and it gets into your skin. Listen and digest this record and you will feel indignant with him one moment and the next you'll be in a tranquil peace as he asks the question "do you believe in miracles?" Throw it on in your car and you'll find yourself nodding your head to music you can't quite fit in a category.
