Details: Wow, I can't believe it has taken me this long to make a recording of my original music. I have written songs since I was a teenager and always thought I would do something with them. However for a long time I let life happen to me and just went with the flow...and the flow took me to some fabulous destinations, just not ones I had imagined. Only in recent years have I realized you can create your own current to take you to the places you've always dreamed of. So here it is..my cd. The songs on this album were chosen from a long list and are the ones I just couldn't leave off. The bulk of the album was recorded 'live' over a week or so in Brisbane January 2006. I never intended it to be a slick album but rather a record of songs that I have been performing in my lounge room for far too long. I am well aware of how powerful music can be ...why if it weren't for Ani defranco, The Indigo Girls, The Dixie Chicks, Joni Mitchell and many others, I might be hiding in a corner somewhere trying to be very small. Instead they inspired me to embrace life and music. My style of music is accoustic guitar driven...it's percussive, lyrical and honest. I hope you like it.
