An infectious and sexy mix of classic Bossa Nova, Samba Brazilian Jazz, both vocal and instrumental (Saxophone, flute, guitar percussion) with hypnotic rhythms and gorgeous melodies by A.C. Jobim and other Brazilian composers. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Traditions, LATIN: Brazilian Jazz Details: Braziliando plays an enchanting mix of Samba, Bossa Nova Brazilian Jazz. Featuring the beautiful guitar playing and soulful vocals of Kleber Jorge, a native of Rio De Janeiro, singing in both Portuguese and English. Kleber has been a touring member of the Sergio Mendez band for many years. Also from Brazil, percussionist Cassio Duarte, who's played with a long list of Brazilian and jazz stars from Gal Costa to Djavan to Toots Thielmans. Cassio provides the raw rhythmic energy and hypnotic pulse, playing a wide variety of Brazilian African drums and percussion instruments. The lyrical and passionate saxophone and flute playing of Robert Kyle round out this trio. Robert too has a long list of jazz credits, and he has a deep love for Brazilian music that shows up in every note he plays. The members of Braziliando have been performing together for over 10 years. Their debut CD "Tempo de Brasil" features a mix of instrumental and vocal music, with several songs from the pen of the great Antonio Carlos Jobim, as well as songs by other contemporary Brazilian composers, and original material too.
