Solid root reggae from Freetown Sierra Leone 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: African Details: The Brooders: Once in a great while, an artist emerges from Africa that has a profound effect on popular culture. Three Georgestone brothers Winston, Magnus, and Denzil grew up in Freetown Sierra Leone on the West Cost of Africa. Their vision back in 1983 was to promote self-determination and self-reliance for all African descendants through their music. Today, the Brooders hope to educate, inform, and uplift people the world over with their positive message based on honesty, peace, and love. The air was so fresh and clean, the grasses were green, now rivers over flowing with blood Africa get up and live
