Original solo Native American flute music that will calm your spirit and give you peace 25 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Gentle, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: About the CD: "The Spirit Sings" is a collection of original songs created for the Native American Flute. Each song is conceived and born from within and is a reflection of my personal relationship with the Holy Spirit. God's calling and plan for my life seem to include the Native American Flute as a conduit for expressing His loving grace and healing spirit. He has enabled and encouraged me to compose and perform these songs for the enjoyment and benefit of others. The tonal and expressive qualities of the Native American Flute calms the mind, body and spirit and establishes an atmosphere for loving communication with all living things. It is my hope that these songs will calm your spirit and give you peace as you embrace the spirit of those you love. About the Composer and Performer: David Claude Rogers, musician, composer and lecturer received his degrees in Music Education and Performance from the University of Michigan and held various teaching, performance and administrative positions in the College of Musical Arts at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio. In addition to providing music programs (vocal, piano and Native American flute) to long-term care facilities, he and colleague Jacqueline Bess Weaver, a specialist in dementia care, are co-founders of the company "Music from the Heart." The company specializes in developing "Music Stimulation Programs" for the elderly that incorporates therapeutic products, ideas and techniques for the benefit of persons diagnosed with dementia and other forms of physical and cognitive decline.
