Having performed a good bit of the standard classical solo literature by his teens, Dick toured Europe at age 17 with an orchestra made up of the best young talents in America. Becoming aware of Jazz music at the age of 8, Dick's early influences in the jazz trumpet world were Louis Armstrong, Clifford Brown, Dizzy Gillespie, Fats Navarro, Booker Little, Miles Davis, and Clark Terry (to name a few). Over the years Dick has worn many musical hats. He has been experienced playing symphonic music, chamber ensembles, classical solo work, rock roll, funk, blues, Casino showroom acts (such as Natalie Cole and Tony Bennett), Broadway Musicals, and Jazz ensembles of various sizes. Over the years, Dick has had the opportunity to play with many notable musicians both in the jazz and classical genres. Dick currently holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in trumpet performance from the University of Nevada, Reno. He resides in Portland, OR where he is active in the music scene.
