Track 3 is 'Ocean's Wave', which he wrote before the tsunami struck.... His sister, Petra, also performs on two of the tracks. " - the Connecticut Post "Felix started playing piano at age 3 but became interested at age 2. 'My parents' friend has a piano and every day when we would drive by I always asked if we could stop there so I could bang on it." - Fairfield CitizenNews "Felix and Petra Jarrar are an amazing brother and sister team that has partnered for a great cause. Their album of piano pieces begins with Petra's elegant musical treatment of Lichner's 'A Short Story'. Both Petra and Felix have an elegant and clean piano technique. Petra shines in both of her selections, showing a beautiful sense of control and musical understanding in 'Minuet', from the A.M. Bach Notebook. Felix shows masterful composition technique in his original pieces. His 'Ocean Waves' brings to mind wonderful imagery of people watching a calm sea that quickly becomes tumultuous and destructive. His use of the bass notes on the piano is extremely effective in this composition. Felix is musically well-rounded and has a fine grasp of classical styles. His compositions feature complex harmonic development as well as some twentieth century style attributes. It is truly wonderful that these children are using their talents to help those in need. And, if I might say, both Felix and Petra are delightful children!" - David Harris
