Details: It was just six short years ago that Finch Williams, starting out new, found himself faced with some new challenges in life. The first challenge was the plans he had made for a new place and they backfired. He was living in a van, working a day job and playing music nightly at local road-side pubs and honky tonks. Taking showers at a friend's place to keep up appearance. "It was tough, but I knew the only way to go from that point was up," Finch remembers. Well the gigs kept coming, and the following grew. He then found himself playing music in better places, (private resorts, and high-class clubs with outdoor stages). Like magic, doors just opened up. Then, offers for upscale outdoor events started rolling in. Finch jumped on them with no fear. There were times when he played music for somewhere between 7 to 10 thousand people armed with no more than his six string flattop. Fate again was with Finch and through a friend of a friend of a friend, Finch was introduced to multi-talented hit producer Johnny Mulhair (producer of Leann Rimes, Blue and Unchained Melody albums) Johnny and Finch clicked right off the bat. The result is now at Your fingertips...
