Turn the lights down low and allow the inner beauty of the music to reveal an inner spirit of love, peace and joy. 16 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Ambient, BLUES: Mellow Blues Details: Gilbert Yslas discovered the love of music at the age of five. In grammar school his father gave a strong discipline ethic in that his love to play baseball had to wait until he had practiced his music. This would be the discipline to open the door to Gil's gift when he picked up the guitar. Years later Gil is actively working as a full time musician in the greater Seattle area. He is a versatile guitarist, producer, songwriter, and engineer. He is currently working as a session guitarists producing music for himself as well as independent album projects. He has also done TV and DVD productions providing original compositions for private companies. He has released many albums throughout the years. He was also CEO of his company Sundown Records for over 10 years. His music is very atmospheric and haunting. His current album features 15 new tracks of original guitar music beautifully orchestrated and produced. His music paints a sweet melodic journey of lavish sensual guitar. The rich sound that comes from his guitar puts the listener in spellbound trance revealing an inner spirit of love, peace and joy.
