Details: Performer and arranger, Joseph Ciulla brings forth a collection of easy listening ballads rich with musical orchestrations, classic pure tone vocals, and precision guitar work. As the title of this CD suggests, Joseph has really spent a lifetime in music. Earning his first pay check as a musician at age ten, he has played many entertainment venues and nightclubs throughout his career. A former Music Theory and Composition Major at Arizona State University, and Vocal Techniques student under A.S.U. s Dr. Christina Carroll, Joseph obtained a sound foundation as an arranger and a "pure tone" vocalist that has served him very well through the years.
