I wrote this song for my 4 year old daughter to sing. This song is from her point of view. Her mom wants to become a Nashville star and is always playing her guitar. Chelsea gets sick of it and wants some attention. Soundtracks included. 2 MP3 Songs in this album (5:46) ! Related styles: COUNTRY: Country Rock, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: My dad gave me the idea for this song. He said, " Sharon, you are always writing very serious songs. Try to make a funny song. How about a song that is from your child's point of view. Like... hey mom put that dang guitar down and stop writing songs for a minute and change my dirty clothes or feed me. So, I think Chelsea did great job singing the song. It sounds a little country the way she sang, and I think she was almost 4 years old when we recorded it. I sang the harmony and released it originally on my Movin' On Movin' Out album in Pennsylvania. Frank Duffy, my sister's husband, played all of the instruments on this song. I decided to send it out as a single, because it is quite different than the rest of the songs on that CD. She is 18 now and has graduated from high school. Wow, time moves along. Oh, and the song has come true. We did move to Tennessee for me to get an Art Teaching job in Nashville. The song predicts that I never made it really big, but my music is taking off, especially my educational music products! So really the song was really fortelling the future to some degree. Any way, I have included the sound tracks, cause I thought there would be a lot of young kids that would have fun singing this song at a talent show.
