One Step Ahead is set to be the turning point in Travis Mitchells career. Travis Mitchells un-mistakable vocals shine through on songs such as, Shotgun Riding Baby, My Dancing Queen and Big City Ways. Mitchell broke all the rules when he wrote Big City Ways, which is a hip hop-country song sure to be a fan favorite, and is evidence of Travis' appreciation of various music genres. When asked about producing and writing all 13 songs on the album Travis said, " It was nice to finally have full creative control on a project. Because of that, this album sounds more like me than anything I have ever done." Travis Mitchell is one of the hottest young Texas country acts on tour right now. Mitchell has been racking up experiences rapid-fire and hitting the road with all sorts of artists, including: Cross Canadian Ragweed, Randy Rogers, Jack Ingram, Sister Hazel, Miranda Lambert, Gary Allan, Lynyrd Skynyrd, and many more. While his roots are planted firmly within country music, his live performance is a mix of heart-pounding country with a rock flare that is unmistakable. He looks to expand his music to a wider audience as he continues to tour and reach new fans. "I think our live performance has really matured". Mitchell says. "The band displays more confidence on stage, the songs themselves are better, and I always try to maintain a high level of energy on stage for the fans." Based out of Dallas, Texas, Travis Mitchell has established himself as another one of the great artists coming from a state where country music is king. Mitchell recorded his second album, Waiting On Tomorrow with Grammy-nominated songwriter Chris Henderson of the popular rock band 3 Doors Down. For Travis Mitchells 3rd album, Mitchell signed a new record deal with Aaron Ave Records and was given full creative control over his product, and it clearly shows on his newest album, One Step Ahead. Travis' says, I am grateful to Aaron Ave for allowing me the privilege to record this album in the spirit in which it was intended.
