Details: He was born Richardo Miller in 1980 at Alexandria public hospital in St. Ann, Jamaica. He is better known by many as Prince Fabulos. His love for music started at an early age, as a child he would sit in front of the radio listening for new song and try to memorize the words and lyrics. Fabulos grew up in Hessen Castle, a small district on the west side of nine miles, the same area where the great legend Bob Marley is laid to rest. He attended Aabuthnott Gallimore High School in St. Ann. Any opportunity he got to showcase his love for music he took it. As the teacher left the class room the desk top became his drum and he would deejay lyrics of Trigger, Super Cat, Shabba, Bounty Killer and many more artists. He would also put his own lyrics together. One of his classmates introduced him to Squengy and Tinna One, selectors from Jamaica champion sound Bass Odyssey. His talent was instantly recognized by the selectors, from there they took him to local dance and stage shows and gave him the microphone to deejay his songs and exposed his talent. Prince Fabulos spent most holidays in Kingston with his grandmother. One of her neighbors was dancehall deejay Daddy Screw who was a very popular dancehall deejay in the 90s. His grandmother introduced him to Daddy Screw. Screw quickly recognized that Prince Fabulos was talented, and took him under his wings and started to mentor him. At the time his stage name was DJ Prince, Daddy Screw thought that his name didnt sound hardcore for a dancehall deejay so he came up with the name Prince Fabulos. After leaving high school, Prince Fabulos migrated to the United States to live with his father. He spent eight years living and working in West Palm Beach, Florida and helping his mother back home in Jamaica.in Florida, Fabulos would go to local dance and stage shows in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale and West Palm Beach area. As an up coming deejay he got to perform on a lot of these stage shows. He performed amongst entertainers like Mr. Lex, Baby Cham, Kip Rich, Vybez Kartel, Assassin and many more. Prince Fabulos then started doing dub plates for Specialist Sound, New Wave Movement, Sensation Sound System and others. Jeff the manager for Specialist Sound recognized Prince Fabulos talent and his love for the music business; they started working together in the music industry. Prince Fabulos is one of the youngest artists to be signed to the Specialist Sound Production Inc. He has been very consistent with the conscious content of his lyrics and music. Now he spends most of his time in Jamaica in the recording studios and working in the music spotlight!!!!
