Ground breaking hip-hop: hype and real...bringing back the true essence of music. 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: Music ( myu zik), n. The art of making sounds that are beautiful, and putting them together into beautiful, pleasing, or interesting arrangements. That is the definition of the word "music" in the dictionary. That is also the goal of Triple Gold Records. Triple Gold Records started as a dream between two brothers and a close friend that is now slowly but surely becoming a reality. The main objective is to bring real music back out into the world and to let them know that not everything has to be of the norm, or commercial to be heard. There are so many talented people out there with music that is exceptionally beautiful that's just waiting to be heard, and Triple Gold is going to find them, sign them, and release them for the whole world to enjoy. Triple Gold's debut album, the compilation "Unleashing" which consists of a variety of artists of different styles letting loose a little taste of what's to come from Triple Gold Records. With the first single "Anticipation", audiences are in for the ride of their life, from Rap, to Hip Hop, R&B, to Pop, with a lil' twist of Jazz and Funk, "Unleashing" has it all for your moods, grooves, and playa moves. We're on the cutting edge of releasing a new and innovative way of re-shaping the music industry. This CD is something you definitely gotta peep. Who has what it takes to put Triple Gold on the map? Read on and find out. "Vagabond"-In an era where Hip-Hop culture is scarred with images of "Bling-Bling" artists, sporting flashy medallions, accompanied by the annoyance of single dimensional Hip-Hop lyricism. Enters: Vagabond, offering listeners a unique perspective on New Skool culture while at the same time merging with the respective Roots of Rap, and Hip-Hop History. By doing this, Vagabond attempts to breakdown the barriers that separate Urban music fans, and introducing a new era, not limited by geographic location and origination. Vagabond believes that the future of Rap, need not be limited by West, East, or Southern distinctions, but instead be united through a UNIVERSAL SOUND. Bridging the gap created by the recent Hip-Hop musical tensions, and trends. By no means is Vagabond your typical "cookie cutter" emcee, every fan agrees that we are a "cut above the best"....we hope you too will agree..."The Evolution of Hip-Hop has begun". "Faculty"-This group consists of a 3-man arsenal ready to take the world hostage. Discovered by Triple Gold's keen A&Rs the Faculty is well into their mission. With all the ambition and determination these fellows could of fooled just about anyone they please. With time on their side the barely legal trio, will have no problems stirring up airwave drama for everybody and their mamas. Originated from the outskirts of S.F. Cali, the boys penetrate Hip-Hop heads with their distinct rhyme patterns spittin' flavor that sugar coats any Rap appetite. Weather you are on the corner, mobbin' in the old skool, or in the club Faculty has the bounce for your ounce. "Siluano"-Siluano the name: The name itself means "Faithful Brother". For all the ladies who still don't know, Siluano the faithful brother would be there to please and never tease (unless you like it like that) and would treat you the way you want. Siluano the man: Just an ordinary all around guy. Born and raised in San Francisco, music has played a big part in his life, from singing in his church choir, to singing the national anthem at a S.F. Giants game just to name a few. Despite all his achievements, Siluano still remains the humble and faithful brother he is. Siluano the R&B Artist: A singer/composer whose' songs are as emotionally compelling than that of a best-selling novel author. With his melodic voice, "Sil" (as he's known to his friends) has a tale for everyone from his book of R&B, where his words will excite and entice your every mood. "The music I bring will not just entertain you, but will keep everything on the real." Real words from a real guy. "Pornoe Junkies"-Down since high school, this 4 man crew set out to rattle up bones in the Bay Area underground Hip Hop scene. With a pair of hard knockin' tracks off Triple Gold Records' compilation "UNLEASHING" it's apparent their debut recordings will slump for Hip Hop generations to come. "Sco-D;Filossofee"-The last of a dying breed, this Hip-Hop activist has his eyes set on turning the tides on the present day rap game where the majority of Hip-Hop personalities are more of a gimmick than pure skill. Sco-D's aggressive spits put him in a category with Hip-Hop's elite felones with charges stemming from murdering of tracks and assination of wack emcees. Allowing Hip-Hop fans a distinct taste of a generation that spawned hungry Artist. A minority in the game, Sco-D brings a lyrical delivery that changes like the weather. Roaring like thunder, flashing like lightning, sCo-D blows the breeze with his witty vocab taking Hip-Hop to a deeper meaning. "Dj A-Ron"- "The Untouchable" is Triple Gold's lead man in heading the wheels of steel. This turntablist has rocked music fanatics with his daunting ability to keep any laxed crowd hyped. From mixing at house parties to tearing up the clubs, this Dj can cut with the best and break with any beat that come scratching his way. If you got the itch, he got the scratch. "Tre Jones"-This Santa Barbara native delivers a head bobbin performance everytime he touches a bass guitar. Playing the bass guitar for over a decade, Tre's keen musical instinct is a must, having laced his signiture on tracks like Unleashing...Doomsday and Bare Arms. Tre plays a unique style of Hip-Hop, Rock, and Funk that he's been perfecting since childhood. To hear him recorded, live, or on radio, Tre Jones is an Artist in every form of the word. "Bigg Saint"-This group will have you swayin' your body with its smooth deliverance of melodic harmony with a splash of Funk and Jazz. Winners of the 1999 House of Blues contest with a style that embraces the likes of Mint Condition and Tony Tone Toni, they've appeared on several compilations and has since been stirring up a comotion in the Bay Area and is on the verge of doing it nationally. After listening to them, its no wonder. "Chepo"-Out of Lathrop Cali, this Puerto Rican wonder has been wreckin mics coast to coast and everywhere in between. A young apprentice in the game, Chepo has gained respect, clout, and collected enough daps to be considered a master putting fake emcees to shame. Whether its in a packed arena,a park, or a good old ciphers, Chepo ain't afraid to grab the spotlight and shine. He brings to the table versatility and ball-crushing lyrics that'll make any emcee recognize. "Sifu"-Tha SuckaFree-Straight out the Golden Gates of the Golden State, Sifu has been putting it down for years in the Scotown's underground music scene. Sifu or SuckaFree's style is non-comparable to anyone in the mainstream. There is a unique similarity in flava with "partner in crime" Sco-D. Sifu's muderous mentality against all opposition with a true West Coast attitude exemplifies sentiment of the House of Representatives. Sifu has the guns to help shoot the TGR camp straight to the top from the underground.
