Accomplished guitarist and vocalist sings original music in a mixture of fingerpickin' rockabilly, chord melody jazz, swing, slide blues, folk, and comedy, with a romping upright bass and dance-groove percussion. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, EASY LISTENING: Cabaret Details: Zoe Wood grew up in Butte, America. She's been writing a remarkable range of songs since her teens. Her musical styles stretches to include a mixture of lullabys and hard rockin' R&B, chord melody jazz, swing, slide blues, folk ballads, and comedy - edging the envelope of entertainment. Sharing the stage in the past with notables such as Charlie Musselwhite, Susan Tedeschi, Brian Bowers, Utah Phillips, and Kelly Joe Phelps, she continues to perform with the Hot Tamales, Zoe's Garden, and solo. Zoe's Garden CD is a sampling from the buffet of her talents. An anthology of songs she has written over the last decade, and the styles range from ballads ("To The Sea"), blues ("Orange County"), lullaby ("Emily"), reggae ("Love Don't Lose Yourself"), All-Americana solid boogie humor ("Strong Back Weak Mind" and "Made in China"), to swing and jazz like "Jump Down Betty", "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" and the mushroom fancier's favorite song, "Naematoloma"
