The ballsiest, most powerful woman blues singer alive. 9 MP3 Songs
BLUES: Electric Blues, BLUES: Rockin' Blues
Details: ZOLA MOON IS THE MOST CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED BLUES ARTIST ON CDBABY. THE QUOTES BELOW ARE FROM MAGAZINES, NEWSPAPERS, WRITERS, REVIEWERS, AND DJs FROM AROUND THE WORLD.

+++++ "A charismatic singer with a restless, blues-wailing sound, Zola Moon's literate original tunes exude a Charles Bukowski wit and a lyrical immediacy missing from most current blues revivalists. This longtime blues-rocking vet remains one of the Southland's best-kept musical secrets."--LOS ANGELES WEEKLY "Zola Moon's pretty damn scary; she can belt 'em out like nobody's bidness, and she plays a wicked-ass harp. When she croons, she grabs you by your throat, knocks you out flat, sits on your chest, and makes sure you know how much she's hurtin'."--ORANGE COUNTY WEEKLY "Not only does Zola sing her heart out, but she plays the harmonica, writes all the songs, and generally just shines."--SOUTHLAND BLUES "Willie Dixon once said to Koko Taylor 'That's what what the world needs, a woman with a voice like yours that sings the blues'. If Willie were alive today you can bet he'd be saying the same thing to Zola Moon. Zola serves up some wild rocking blues complete with gut wrenching vocals, hot guitar licks and some pretty mean harp-and shows that the blues don't have to be the same old thing, they can be fresh, original and very, very HOT!"--BLUEZ4U.COM "When Zola sings, you can just FEEL the blues drip down, like wax on a candle."--THE ONCE AND FUTURE BLUES "Zola Moon's live performances grab you by the throat."--INLAND VALLEY DAILY BULLETIN "I am more excited about Zola Moon than any female blues singer that has ever passed my way in 47 years. She is the best female blues singer I have ever heard.

She is SPELLBINDING."--BIG DADDY BLUZHARP'S Guide To The Best Of Blues Harmonica And Beyond "Zola Moon should make any blues fan jump for joy."--BLUESBOYMUSIC.COM "Zola Moon's talent as a singer and a songwriter cannot be denied. She can be hurt by the end of a relationship or by economic hardship or by the state of the world, but she never gives in to self pity or despair; she's too tough, ballsy and hip for that. She keeps bouncing back and fighting back, because that's her nature; her voice won't be stilled. And what a voice it is, capable of hard-rockin' joy, bitter sorrow, deeply felt love. Zola Moon has put together one of the finest CDs of the year."--BLUES JAZZ SCOPE "It's very refreshing to hear something new, yet still in a great blues tradition. Zola Moon will be heard on my show over over over."--Brett Parker: THE BLUES BOX, Logan 101.1FM, AUSTRALIA "Zola Moon has a voice that places her on the same level with the legends of the blues. It is hard to find any accolades that haven't already been used to describe her talent."--DELTA SNAKE DAILY BLUES "Zola Moon has been picking up hot reviews from several quarters."--BLUES ON STAGE "Zola writes original songs that swing and rock, plays the harp, and is a full-voiced blues singer who can hold a note with power forever and still get soft and sultry."--BLUES ACCESS "Wow! This gal has a great set of powerful pipes. Zola Moon pulls no punches. There is a real echo of Big Mama Thornton and Janis Joplin and I'd be the last to complain about that. Zola is a truly honest talent and fills a very bright spot on the blues scene today. This is refreshing as hell blues."--JAZZREVIEWS.COM "It's 105 degrees in Texas, but Zola Moon makes that seem cool by comparison. This woman and her music are HOT!!!"--Dave Johnson: Host of the nationally-syndicated BLUES DELUXE radio program "South Bay blues legend Zola Moon plays a wicked harp and belts the blues like she grew up on the Mississippi Delta."--LOS ANGELES DAILY NEWS "Zola Moon is one of the most exciting blues singers in the United States."--THE-MP3-WAY.COM "Zola Moon has one of the best voices in blues. It is an incredible voice."--MO' BAGS OF BLUES "If talent is truly in the equation, this Moon should rise, indeed."--MUSIC CONNECTION "The blues would not be the blues without the timeless songs of people like John Lee Hooker, Robert Johnson, Willie Dixon, Mississippi John Hurt, and Muddy Waters. Zola Moon's songwriting and singing put her in very good company."--EASY READER "You get 200 percent when she's on stage. She must lose at least 5 pounds a night when she performs. Zola Moon is marked for greatness."--CULTURE WARS "Zola is a great blues singer, but I got some problems with her. She's real good lookin' AND her butt is smaller than mine!"--Ann the Raven: KPCC "Her name is Zola Moon and she is a triple-threat talent. Not only does she write the songs and sing the hell out of them, she plays a mean harmonica."--WHAT'S UP "Zola Moon delivers blues the way blues were meant to be delivered, with passion and soul. No doubt about it, Zola Moon is the REAL DEAL."--Karen E. Reynolds: WDVX "Steamy, raw, wailing songs; she is completely original. Miss seeing Zola Moon at your own risk."--ROCK CITY NEWS "Zola Moon is making a name for herself in the blues like there's no tomorrow."--4 FRONT "Zola Moon's incredible voice, smoldering presence, and powerful charisma have captivated everyone from legendary blues players to brain-fried club patrons."--BUZZ "Zola Moon is one of the great blues singers."--EDGE "Zola Moon is a riveting stage presence. With her flair for improvisation, each performance has its own unique flavor. Her powerful style and charisma are undeniable. Don't miss her act."--NEW MILLENNIUM "Zola Moon can rip through a song with the ferocity of a caged lion that's finally been freed."--STEREOPLAY "It's not often that we get a blues singer that has the ballsy style of Zola Moon. TOTALLY original. If you love hot heavy blues with GUTS, you'll agree with me when I declare her to be one of the BEST OF THE BEST!"

--IMPROVIJAZZATION NATION "It has been a long time since I have had the pleasure of listening to such a spectacular voice. Zola Moon is the Goddess of the Blues. Zola draws you in and makes you feel the blues like you've never felt them before. I grew up on the blues, and can tell you that it just doesn't get any better than this. If it does, I've yet to hear it."--THE GLOBAL MUSE.COM "The 'living the blues' part of singing the blues has always seemed a bit far-fetched to me, but Zola just might come and kick my ass for saying that."--WIRETAP "Right up there with the best of the best, it's ZOLA MOON! 'Are you Reaaaaady for the BLUES?' If you are, then you are ready for ZOLA MOON!"--The Righteous NiteOwl: WIIS "Zola Moon is a blues icon."--Left Coast Carl: KSPC "Real blues fans, the ones with B.B. King and John Lee Hooker in their CD collections, will love Zola Moon."--INDIE-MUSIC.COM "Zola Moon will be on our playlists for as long as forever is."--Larry Lowe: CYBRORADIO "***** Zola Moon recordings are must-haves for any blues lover."--BEACH NEWS "Zola Moon is the hardest working blues singer in Southern California."--RAVE "Zola Moon sings some powerful original blues with a powerful voice that is not really like any other we have heard in quite a while."--GRITZ.COM "Zola Moon is one of the TOP TEN artists of the year."--FEMMUSIC.COM "Zola Moon has energy and style-an unbeatable combination where the blues are concerned."--Dave Butler: WHBN "Zola Moon serves up fiery original blues songs, powerfully versatile vocals, and great harmonica prowess."--PLAYBACK "As both a singer and a songwriter, Zola Moon continues to add luster to her well deserved renown her with wild, rocking blues.

Yet her music is, at the same time, very sophisticated, and when she wants to, in spite of her force-of-nature power, she can draw you in and create an intimate atmosphere."--HALLANDSPOSTEN

"So much of the blues nowadays sounds all the same. What a pleasure to hear someone fresh and original like Zola Moon."--Ted 'T' Tepsich: KSDS "South Bay legend Zola Moon's CDs are packed with the kind of blues that makes you laugh, cry, sing along and tap your foot."--SOUTH BAY WEEKLY/LA TIMES

"Zola Moon is a powerhouse. She reminds me of Etta James and Koko Taylor at their peaks."--Erica Reed: KUOR "Zola Moon is the best blues artist I have heard in many years."--Kjell Andreassen: RADIO HOLSTEBRO "I think 'WOW' best sums up what I felt when I first heard Zola Moon."--Mark 'DJ Dawg' Douglas: DH NET RADIO "Ms. Moon HAS the fire, and she will charge you UP! Not only MOST HIGHLY RECOMMENDED, but also 'PICK OF THE YEAR' for 'Best Female Blues'!"--MUSICDISH.COM "Zola Moon is a challenging talent and a master of the blues. Her incredible power and stunning vocals clearly prove that she is, indeed, a force to be reckoned with."--GOGIRLSMUSIC.COM "Zola Moon is unique, insightful, passionate and genuine. My only disappointment is that I live in Australia and can't experience her music live all the time."--Stewart Dorman: WALKING THE BLUES, 4DDB FM 102.7, AUSTRALIA

"Zola Moon's lyrics are totally cliché-less and, with only slight inflections in her phrasing, her voice can convey irony, menace, or sadness."--BLUES BYTES "Zola Moon is one of the finest blues singers I've ever heard."--Curtis Tillman (bass player for Big Mama Thornton, Lowell Fulson, Albert Collins, Bobby Blue Bland, Freddie King, Johnny Ace, etc., etc., etc.) "Zola Moon can blow you away one minute, then take you to another place the next, still leaving you with the blues. She can sing, play harp, and write a bloody good song. If you have got the blues, you need Zola. Recommended? You better believe it."--Terry Iredale: HOT-FM 106.7 "Zola Moon sounds like no other blueswoman in the business. She scratches and bites with a vocal aggression seldom heard today. Nevertheless she's no rock singer, but is deeply rooted in the blues. This is also evident in her songwriting. Her blues seem to come out of deep soul even when she swings. Her voice reminds me of Koko Taylor and Janis Joplin. Live, Zola Moon must be a phenomenon of nature."--CONCERTO, GERMANY "From the first time of the many times I have seen Zola perform, I have always considered her incredible voice and power to be true forces of nature."--Vince Daniels: WPMD "Zola Moon delivers tons of passion with an incredible voice. Great original songs, great backing band, great production. Wow! Wow! Wow!"--Uncle Vasja: MOJO BLUES 103 FM "Zola Moon concentrates on good songs (hers) and is a welcome different take on the blues, doing away with the cheesy, self-indulgent, fake-Stevie Ray noodlings many bands mistake as blues. She is enrapturing. One of our picks of the year."--SHADOWWORLD "Great musicianship and an incredible voice make Zola Moon a definite winner. For those of you who look at the Blues as an old man style of music, all I have to say is, listen to Zola! Those who have heard her, understand what I'm talking about. Those who are interested, are going to be shown the way. And those who say, '*& this Blues # $ & *, I want my # & * @ $ RAWK!', are going to miss out. This is just simply fantastic blues!!! Highest rating-A++."--LIVE MUSIC "Zola Moon plays a deadly harp, has a tight hard-assed band, and belts the blues like the early shouters. The fact that she writes all her material is a bonus. When is she coming to Australia?"--Stephen Hall: RED HOUSE BLUES, Radio 2NSB, Sydney, AUSTRALIA "Does Zola Moon know how to sing the blues?-Damn right she does!!! Does Zola Moon know how to play harp?-Damn right she does!!! Does Zola look GOOOOOD?-Oh, Mama, she sure does!!!"--Kruno: VFM BLUES RADIO, CROATIA "Man, if Zola Moon doesn't grab you by the soul, then you must be dead!"--DJ Smilestir: BLUE ICEWATER RADIO, blueicewater.cjb.net "Zola Moon has the ability to get deep under your skin. Listening, I felt that she was there in person and not just on my studio monitors."--Sharna Tierney: CRUZIN' FOR A BLUZIN, Bay FM 99.9, Byron Bay, AUSTRALIA "Zola Moon is a staple of our radio show. Her vocals and songwriting are stellar. Plus, Zola's band is top-flight and keeps the party rockin."--Joe Kelly: THE UPPER ROOM WITH JOE KELLY, WVOF 88.5 FM, CONNECTICUT "I was too young for Billie Holiday; I never got to see Janis Joplin perform, but I can tell the world that I've seen Zola Moon and, friends, she was something to see. Zola Moon is an artist you can tell your grandchildren about."--SOUTHBOUND BEAT "Zola Moon is one of the few contemporary American blues artists who manages to say some new things in a truly original way."--Gustavo Rozenberg: GOODTIME BLUES, VIERNES 91.3 FM, Buenos Aires, ARGENTINA "Zola Moon and her music are hot as Hell."--Johnny Timewarp, WFCS 107.7 FM, CONNECTICUT "As ever, Zola Moon is a cool artist full of vitality who shows what she is able to do, which is more than one can really imagine."--Vicente Zumel: THE BLUES HOUR, 96.6 FM, Barcelona, SPAIN "Zola Moon has a powerhouse voice. These are original songs sung by a woman who puts emotion and feeling into her song stylings."--Doug Lewis: The Doug Lewis Show, WGVN, 107.3 FM, St. Thomas, US VIRGIN ISLANDS "An amazing Blues harmonica player as well as an incredible singer."--BELLY UP 4 BLUES "Zola Moon not only sings, but writes from the heart, always with honesty, power and beauty."--LIVELY ARTS "As Zola Moon sings, you can feel the hairs on your arms and the back of your neck standing on end. She grabs you by the throat and comes up fighting."--SOCAL BLUES

"You REALLY thrash!"--a very tattooed skateboarder at a show in Hermosa Beach (to be continued)
