Many and I mean many Internet marketers have gotten their start through affiliate marketing. Consider this you can start making money without creating a product, without dealing with support nightmares and even without a website. And you can get started immediately. You get paid by bringing buyers to sellers. When they buy, you get a piece of the action -- called a commission. So, if a prospect buys a $50 product, and the product pays 50 commission you will make $25. In other words, you are like a commission-only salesperson. Except that you don't have to do all the selling or, often, much selling at all. You don't have to do take any orders. You don't have to meet prospects face-to-face. All you have to do, often, is simply introduce interested people to the product. And it all happens online. Considering that you can advertise on the Internet often for free or very inexpensively, it may be the perfect place to start, or expand, your efforts in creating an online income and an Internet business. With no floors to sweep, no insurance to pay and advertising that can work for you 24 hours a day it can easily become a fairly passive income. One you can start up while still showing up at the day job or, when sufficient, taking the rest of the day off -- nearly every day. Manuel Ortiz Braschi
