When Stephanie's art teacher issues a challenge-create a painting based only on the torso of a human sculpture-she decides to paint a Regency lord. But with his muscular body, longer hair and a few well-placed scars, Stephanie's lord is definitely no Regency dandy. Her best work ever, the painting stirs an obsession Stephanie can't explain. Not content to wait for the next class, she visits the art center, just to get a peek at her lord. She touches the painting... And suddenly finds herself in a bedroom in 1817 London, her lord standing behind her-very real, very naked and very ready to end Stephanie's sexual dry spell. Before she can say "ton", Stephanie's indulging her desires with Gabriel, dressing in the height of Regency fashion and meeting the Prince Regent. But life in 1817 isn't all tea and crumpets. Stephanie soon learns she's reliving her past life-one that ended tragically. Thrust in the middle of a sinister plot, she must save the prince, save Gabriel...and if she's luckier this time around, save herself.
