Street Shit ... 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: "The Darko Effect" Yeah that's right ya'll, NSD has released the long awaited debut album by Donnie Darko "The Darko Effect". 16 Tracks of some of the hottest work done by Never So Deep/Suicide Kingz Productions. I don't know which is better, the lyrics, flow, or the production. The whole album is REAL Hip-Hop at its finest! The track "My Life" has #1 single written all over it. A song that talks about the everyday hardships people go through in life. Marcus Allen brings a Hip Hop R&B flavor to the track with incredible vocals, and Donnie Darko makes it an undeniable hit with his rhymes and flow. Donnie Darko brings his street experience into play with two bangers "Block Game" and "Gangsta" (featuring DJ Bless). "Block Game" another Heat Seeking Single puts the listener on the Block with smooth delivery and clever word play. On the track "Gangsta", Donnie Darko delivers the type of verse that will shut the club down, while DJ Bless backs him up with his hardcore grimey vocals. For those Hip Hop heads that are strictly into underground tracks, checkout "Boon Doc Saints" featuring Logic and Swan the Truth (from Agency 1.9.9.4). This shit is pure underground. Logic makes his first appearance with NSD on this track, and has made an impression without a doubt. As always Swan brings you some of the incredible Agency 1.9.9.4 rhyme skills. Then there is the track "Devils Bastard Part 2" featuring Young Vadah, straight from the Streetz of South Jamaica, Queens. Vadah brings a flow and a story that MC's from South Jamaica (New York) are known for. "The Struggles We Face" is Donnie Darko's personal favorite on the album. "Its soul music that people can relate too as well as a perspective of my life," says Darko. This is definitely a track straight from his heart. DJ Bless aka Sutter Kain is the Executive Producer of the album and brings the type of sound he is famous for. His production, engineering, mixing and mastering skills definitely stand out on this project. With production contributions from 6 Sense and Rain the album is definitely a must have.

Never So Deep/Suicide Kingz Productions is an independent label that brings a major label sound with this release.
