"UpstairsInsideBeyond" and me, Emma Ninel - You are so Welcome! I really think that CD Baby is great opportunity for you to discover new artists and music to inspire your day. I want to say this before I really begin: Do you want to opt out of all the rush in this world? I'll recommend you to come closer

"UpstairsInsideBeyond", and slowly become human again. I allow myself to say so, because this music does somethings. It isn't either newage, folk, jazz, indie or worldmusic. It is somewhere between all of that in it's very own sphere. I feel so lucky to have the opportunity to be the former of this music, I can't say that to often (I have already said this many times before :-)! This CD just came to me, from Upstairs, Inside, and Beyond. You get 9 unique songs recorded with piano and voice, together with words about power, light and love. No sad lovesong..... 4 songs are inspired of the 4 elements, one of an Egyptian goddesses called Quan Yin, one of the light in you,- and a song with the title; "Hold your Heart" - in your hand don't let go. Only you understand don't you know. 9 Songs which are even possible to sing to if you like,- but please never listen to it when you don't have time. It craves you - it certainly does! You can't feel the music when you don't give time and devotion, you may only get more stressed or irritated. When you are ready to UIB, you may discover an expansion both physically and emotional, and the possibility of another opening of your heart. Me myself have cried many releasing tears while taking this music. I come closer to a deeper place in me, and get surrounded by a peaceful energy. The simple recording method with only 3 days in the studio, does that these songs are authentically and very vulnerable. Vulnerable music have a hard time doing a hit, but I am hopeful about big changes in the world, so people dare to feel themselves again. You can be an important piece in this universal game, by either getting close to this music yourself, or telling about it to a friend you think is ready for UIB. You are always welcome to ask me anything you like on thanks@emmaninel.com emmaninel I'd be delighted to hear from you. With Love Emma Ninel
