Percussion based, ethereal soundscapes mixing jazz, world beat and warm classical sophistication. Good for clearing your head. 7 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, WORLD: World Beat Details: Josh Seurkamp is Cincinnati's quintessential drummer/percussionist. His range flows seamlessly from exotic ethnic percussion to driving pop music and all points in between. As a general rule of thumb, if you've heard of any artist or group in Cincinnati, Josh has played with them. He is widely sought after for his defining creativity, his eclectic influences, his unrivalled performances, and his vast array of unusual instruments. Josh Seurkamp embodies the spirit of independent music. Music is not only his career, it is his life. His music has helped define the sounds and textures of a host of artists, and his live performances are instantly recognizable as essential Josh Seurkamp. Josh lives to play. If there were no such thing as a concert or an album, you can be assured that Josh would still be passionately playing his music. Josh has toured and recorded with such artists as: Phil Keaggy David Wilcox Tony Levon (Peter Gabriel, John Lennon) Grammy Nominated Producer/artist: Ric Hordinski (Over The Rhine, Monk) David Wolfenberger (The Creek Dippers, The David Wolfenberger Band) Kim Taylor In addition he has recorded over 100 records and numerous movie and television soundtracks. Garden of Sound- "a wonderful disc chock full of moody and atmospheric tunes that will transport you to many strange and wonder-filled places. A journey to this garden is one filled with delightful sights and sounds.... Listening to these tunes makes me jealous of people who can pick up an instrument and make all of these delightful sounds come out of it. There are two live cuts on the album and I am in awe, knowing that there are only two people playing these songs..." Phantom Tollbooth ... an excellent ambient, jazzy sound as his exotic percussion takes center stage. The album ranges from improv percussion and bass jams to a catchy Afro/world-beat tune...
